Thursday, January 26, 1871.

City Council and the Fire Tax. The City Council have petitioned the Legislative Council to assist them to the Fire Department. Now we will not inquire too deeply into civic Ways and Means,-but will deal with the existing mode of raising a fire tax, which the petitioners pray may be made still more intolerable. The existing tax is levied under an Ordinance passed in 1869, by which the City Council is limited to raising a fire tax not exceeding $3,000 in the following manner: —One quarter of one per cent on the value of all uninsured buildings in the city; one-eighth of one per cent on the amount of all insurances ffected on real and personal property if usured for one-half of its value or upwards. Now the prayer of the petation of the City Council is that the one-eighth of one per cent shall be raised to onesixth of one per cent on all real and persome companies shall pay a license of $250 peryear. The last tax—the license—dod't appear to be very objectionable in amount, more particularly as all the Insurance Companies have combined to charge a fixed rate, and that rate far higher than it is in Canada, the Eastern States, or in England, on the same classes of property. It is, however, the present tax and the proposed additional tax to which we take exception ; and we take exception to it because we deem it to bear unfairly on property, some classes paying higher taxes than they ought and other classes being exempted from taxation altogether. To put this case fairly before our readers, we will compare the taxes now assessed, and the taxes proposed. If a man has build-ings estimated to be worth $1,200, that are uninsured, he will pay $3. If he has any amount of uninsured personal property, he pays no fire tax. If another has buildings to the value of $1,200 that are insured for only $600, he will only pay 75 cents. If he insures to the full value $1,200, he is taxed $1 50. If still another insures personal property worth $1200 for half its value he pays 75 cents; and for its whole value $1 50. Now, the proposed new fire tax, if imposed on uninsured buildings or personal property to the value of $1200, would be $2; if for $600, it would be $1. As the law now stands, then, such uninsured owners of buildings pay $1.50 more than the insured. On the other hand, the insured owners of personal property. the insured owner of personal property pays on $1200 a fire tax of $1 50, whilst the uninsured owner of personal property that is equally well protected by the Fire Department, pays nothing. It is very carliest possible day, and miners and others may depend on being supplied with

All kind of Lumber at reasonable rates. way in which the fire tax is imposed is most unfair; and the City Council in some respects wish to intensify its unfair-ness by an additional house. ness by an additional burden. We will not, therefore, consider the matter in more detail; but press upon the attention of our law-makers the deireability of taxing all classes of property alike. In no English-speaking portion of North America, except in British Colum-bia would such a law be allowed to remain on the statute book a single session. In all English-speaking America, when a tax is levied on property, it treats real and personal property alike. So, if A. invests $1,000 in land in the city; B, $1,000 in merchandize; C., $1,000 in mortgages; D., $1,000 in buildings; and E. has $1,000 in cash in the bank, --each and all are taxed alike, --no matter whether insured or uninaured. Property has to be pro-tected; and all classes of property bear equally the taxes for its protection, whether from fire or from any other social enemy. We know not a greater set of unfairness than compelling a man who has an uninsured cottage, worth $600, on the outskirts of the town, erected on a 100-dollar lot, and worth ealy $5 per month, to pay $1 50 fire tax; whilst the owner of a wooden building in the centre of the town, worth $600, on a lot worth $3,000, and drawing $30 per month, pays not one cent more for fire tax. We might go ou multiplying instances to show the rotten—worse than rotten—unjust taxation that is imposed here for civic purposes. But we have said enough on this occasion to authorize us in directing the attention of those most, concerned—our rate-payers and Legislators—to the subject.

THE PROCLIVITIES FOR SENSATION.—It is astonishing that in this modern, and supposed to be more refined age, that a custom still exists which originated in the Fifteenth Central Control of the STANDARD OFFICE, or to STAFFORD & HICKIN. from an accidental circumstance of Maida and Buchelors amusing themselves on the 14th of February, by drawing lottery-wise, a name to be taken seriously or in joke to represent their future wives or husbands. Their custom moderinized, exhibits the same tendency, in the form of Valentines. Some chaste in appearance and sentiment, and others grotesque and calculated to please or offend. T. N. Hibben & Co. are prepared for the coming St. Valentine's Day in the modern and most pleasing form.

New York, Jan. 22—A Herald cable dispatch from London, the 20th, says: Much excitement is exused in political viroles by the ramered difficulty in the kinglish Cablues, although the statement that Childers had resigned is untrue. His retirement is only a question of time, on account of his health. There is no truth in the statement that members of the Conference have signed a resolution declaring that no single power has a right to amend the treaty made jointly by other Conferences, and is regarded as a stapendious farce, designed to blind the people to the fact of England's humiliation before Russia.

St. Denis progresses favourably. The fort is almost silenced. There are several fires in the town of St. Denis, and in the walls of Paris to-day.

New York, Jan 23—A Herald cable dispatch, dated Vesrailles the 20th, says: the late sorties were a desperate attempt of the French to break through the Prussian lines.

During the assault on the German entrenchments, many French officers displayed reckless bravery, urging the men bravely, but without effect. In many instances the French fought with a fury, evidently by strong drink and other causes, but all the efforts of the eaders were in vain. The French, after the battle, fled, throwing away their arms.

MAGIC SOAP. for doing a Large Family Washing in Two Hours, of Five or Siz Dozen Pieces.

Hours, of Rive or Six Dozen Pieces.

1. Cat up fine a bar of the Soap, and put one-ha of it into your boiler with sufficient water to cover your white clothes to be washed, and let the Soap dissolve; then put your clothes in, stirring them, and let them six come to a boil; then pour out clothes and water into a tub and let them soak twenty or thi ty minutes, stirring them round in the tub occasionally to loosen the dirt. Such articles as collars, wristbands or any ar icle very dirty, should be rubbed through the hands a little while soaking in order to thoroughly loosen the dirt before boiling.

2. While your clothes are soaking put the other half of your cut Soap into your boiler, with sufficient clean water to boil, and let it be heating. After your clothes have soaked wring them out well and put into your boiling water, and let boil from 5 to 10 minutes; then rinse, blue and hang out to dry. If the above directions are followed, we will guarantee your clothes clean and white.

3. For your colored and workles clothes was the sone.

white.

3. For your colored and woollen clothes use the same water you souked and boil your white clothes with, onlineating it up again, and pour it over your colored an woollen clothes, and let soak the same as your whiteleften, also rubbing them through your hands whiteleften through your hands whiteleften through your whiteleften through your hands whiteleften through your whitelef clothes, ilso rubbing them through your hands while soaking, if very dirty. Then rinse in clear water, warm a your hands will bear, and you will thus secomplish a large washing in two hours.

By cutting up a bar of this Soap into two gallons water, and let boil until thoroughly dissolved, and then le ve to cool, you will have two gallons of beautiful SOAT, as good as Common Soap for general house pur posces.

PR. CHING FUN-A CARD-EDITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has been done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, nxet door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which baffied the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronehitis attacked my right lung, and my eyes became awfully inflamed. Depairing of ever being cured I placed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too londly, so that all my countryinen similarly affecteed may visit him and find reliet, Respectfully,
